

PHP implode() Function

Topics : PHP Functions

Written on April 20, 2021

PHP implode() Function is used to join array elements into string.

Syntax :

```
implode(separator,array);
```

PHP implode() Function returns string with separator between two array elements.

Parameter Values,

PHP implode() Function

Parameter	Description
separator	Optional. Join array elements with separator string. Default value for separator is an empty string.
array	Required. The array to join to a string.

Let's see below example to understand implode() Function in details.

Example :

```
<?php
$arr = array('Learn','php','implode','function','by','aryatechno');
print_r($arr);
echo " Join array element without separator :".implode($arr)."";
echo " Join array element by space :".implode(" ",$arr)."";
echo " Join array element by dash:".implode("-", $arr)."";
echo " Join array element by semicolon:".implode(";", $arr)."";
echo " Join array element by comma:".implode(";", $arr)."";

?>
```